

FALMOUTH STATE REP. TERESA PIERCE, NOT POSITIVE ON LIMITATIONS FOR USE OF E.B.T. CARDS

October 23, 2015

In a video interview during “office hours” at Bernie’s eastside on the 22nd, Teresa seemed to be unsure whether using EBT cards at strip joints, tattoo parlors, and bail from jail is a bad thing until she could hear from the public on those items.

The bail might be needed to get the breadwinner out of jail to support his family that’s on EBT, from his under the table cash job. You might need to go to the strip club to use their ATM machine at 3am because your local bank’s machine is out of cash and you need some twenties to pay your dope dealer. Teresa couldn’t say for sure if she would oppose using EBT cards at tattoo shops until she “heard from the public.”

So, if we have this straight, Maine can’t freeze use of an EBT card at three locations, because you need to get bailed out of jail to work, and go to the strip joint, on your way to the tattoo parlor.

And you wonder why Gov. LePage can’t get along with the democrats when one of the smartest ones in Augusta thinks like this.
